

PROQUEST ONLINE TRAINING OBJECTIVES AND OUTLINE

Title: PROQUEST DISSERTATION AND THESES GLOBAL- Supporting Your Research

Target Audience: Students, Librarians, Researchers, Academician/Lectures and etc

Presentation Style: Power Point Presentation, Live Demonstration, Assessments/Hands-On Exercises and Q & A session

Duration: 1 to 1 ½ Hours

Speaker: Ms. Kurinji Malar K

Objectives:

At the end of the session, you will be able to:

- Understand the content coverage within ProQuest Dissertation and Theses Global
- Empower the best practices for searching information
- Understand the value and usage of PQDT in your research
- Evaluate, curate, organize and keep yourself updated in your own domain

Training Outline

- Introduction to ProQuest Dissertations and Theses Global (PQDT)
 - What is ProQuest Dissertation & Theses Global?
 - Use of varied content type- Survey Findings
- Use of PQDT content in Teaching & Research
 - Why use Dissertations and Theses for Research, Teaching and Learning
 - Apply an effective search Strategies and Tips
 - Use of multiples search Forms and Index searching
- Diving Deeper into Related Research
 - Cited by: Identify the most influential papers on your topic
 - References: Discovering the gap in your sources or references
 - Related Items: Expand your topic expertise by reviewing relevant publications
- Evaluate, curate and organize your information
 - Refine your searches with filters
 - Evaluate the content type
 - Multiple saving and sharing options
- Keep yourself updated in your own domain
 - Continue your research with saved searches
 - Share saved searches with others
 - Create alerts to stay updated
 - Dissertation Bootcamp – supporting your research journey
- Quiz session
- Q & A